1 School profile statement

1.1 Location, Population and Demographic

Burwood East Primary commenced in 1861 and is situated in a well established eastern Melbourne suburb. The site is situated on the corner of Blackburn and Highbury Roads which are moderately busy arterials in the eastern suburbs. The school caters for a mixed social demographic, with a significant number of students-

- from a non English Speaking background
- in families who receive an Educational Maintenance Allowance
- with both parents working

BEPS has a comprehensive integration program that is well supported by teacher aides who work cooperatively with staff and parents.

1.2 Facilities and Resources

The school is housed in two wing, with the weatherboard exterior wing housing the Administration, Library/Resource area, Reading Recovery Teaching Centre facility, canteen, sick bay, interior pond and small Multi-Purpose Room with 2 toilets and eight classrooms. The second wing is of Brick construction and houses the Art room and five classrooms with the student toilets attached.

The old school house and extension house the, Out Of School Hours Care program run by Camp Australia and the Specialist prep Class from the Burwood east Special School.

The School Council owns two portables with one being set up, as a Music Room and the other The Oasis room where students may go during lunch times to pursue passive activities.

The school grounds are large and attractively landscaped to provide active and passive areas for students to enjoy. The entrance to the school is very inviting and car parking is provided at the front and side of the school.

The school has a Multi-purpose Hall which was constructed recently under the government’s BER Program. The Hall is used for weekly assembly, other school sessions and hired-out to community organisations for a variety of purposes.

The school has four water tanks with the 240litre tank catching storm water to water the oval. The three smaller tanks collect water to use in the toilets.

The school is developing and expanding upon its’ sustainably practises which presently consist of composting and a school vegetable garden worked by the students.
1.3 Staff

The school has a mix of experienced staff and new recruits, gender representation and full and part time personnel. Staffing includes part time LOTE, English as a Second Language and Reading Recovery teachers and Education Support Staff who work differing time fractions. The school buys in additional support to that provided by DEECD in the areas of student well being with two days a week support from a Speech Pathologist, one day a week from an Occupational Therapist and the services of a Physiotherapist when on a needs basis. DEECD provides BEPS with a Speech Pathologist one day per fortnight and a Guidance Officer who visits when needed. The office is staffed by a full time business manager and office assistant.

2 Whole-school prevention statement

Rationale:
Burwood East Primary School endeavours to promote high student engagement, attendance and positive behaviour. We have a variety of programs in place which support our students to attend school, participate in class and enjoy learning. We will review these programs regularly and address issues in our Strategic Plan and Annual Implementation Plans.
Guidelines:
- This policy should be read in conjunction with the Burwood East Primary School Primary Prevention: Building Belonging and Promoting Wellbeing and Engagement protocol chart and Attendance Policy

3 Rights and responsibilities

Rationale:

The school will provide a positive culture where students, staff and parents/carers take equal responsibility for the promotion of individual rights and responsibilities. All members of our school community have the right to feel safe and welcomed in our school, treating each other with dignity and respect at all times.

Guidelines:

- Please refer to the Burwood East Primary School Antibullying and Student Wellbeing policies and legislation such as the charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006, the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 and the Racial and Religious tolerance Act 2001.

3.1 Guiding Principles

Every member of the school community has a right to fully participate in an educational environment that is safe, supportive and inclusive. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and dignity.

3.2 Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity Act 1995 sets out the types or grounds of discrimination that are unlawful and aims to promote community recognition and acceptance of the equality of men and women, and the equality of people of all races, regardless of their religious or political convictions, their impairments or their age.

Under the act it is unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis of the following attributes:
3.3 The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006

The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Respect
- Equality
- Dignity

The charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

- The right not to be discriminated against
- The right to privacy and reputation
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief
- Cultural Rights

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect other human rights.

All DEECD employees must act compatibly with the Charter and give proper consideration to human rights when making decisions. Everyone should:

- Encourage compliance with the Charter
- Support others to act compatibly with the Charter, and
- Respect and promote human rights

Part of the monitoring of Human Rights will be to complete the Charter Compliance Checklist on the School Compliance web site.

3.4 Students with disabilities

The Disability Standards for Education 2005 clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make ‘reasonable adjustments’ to accommodate a student with disability. An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students. An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student's learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.

In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should take into account information about:

- the nature of the student’s disability
- his or her preferred adjustment
- any adjustments that have been provided previously
- any recommended or alternative adjustments.

This information might come from the student, an associate of the student, independent experts, or a combination of these people.

An education provider should ensure that the student, or an associate of the student, has timely information about the processes for determining whether the proposed adjustment would cause unjustifiable hardship to the provider. The provider should also ensure that these processes maintain the dignity, respect, privacy and confidentiality of the student and the associates of the student, consistent with the rights of the rest of the community.

The provider may consider all likely costs and benefits, both direct and indirect, for the provider, the student and any associates of the student, and any other persons in the learning or wider community, including:

- costs associated with additional staffing, providing special resources or modifying the curriculum
- costs resulting from the student’s participation in the learning environment, including any adverse impact on learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers
- benefits of the student’s participation in the learning environment, including positive learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers, and
- any financial incentives, such as subsidies or grants, available to the provider if the student participates.

The Disability Discrimination Act and the Education Standards do not require changes to be made if this would impose unjustifiable hardship to a person or organisation.

3.5 Bullying and harassment

Definitions:

Harassment is any verbal, physical or sexual conduct (including gestures) which is uninvited, unwelcome or offensive to a person.

Bullying is repeated oppression, physical or psychological, of a less powerful person by a more powerful person or group.

Cyberbullying is a form of bullying which is carried out through an internet service such as email, chat room, discussion group, online social networking, instant messaging or web pages. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as SMS. It may involve text or images (photos, drawings)

Examples of cyberbullying behaviour are:

- teasing and being made fun of
- spreading of rumours online
- sending unwanted messages
- defamation.

Cyberbullying can happen to anyone and the bully can act anonymously if they want. People can also be bullied online by groups of people such as class groups or collective members of an online community.

It is important for the school to provide a safe and friendly environment for students and staff and to encourage care, courtesy and respect for others. All persons have a legal right to protection from harassment under the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act and the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act.

The effects of harassment or bullying include:

- poor health – anxiety, depression
- lower self esteem
- reduced study performance
- missed classes, social withdrawal
- reduced career prospects

If a student sees another person being harassed or bullied they should tell the person that you witnessed the incident and advise them to report it to an appropriate person. However, if your friend is harassing another person, let them know that their behaviour is unacceptable. Bystanders who do nothing to stop bullying may be contributing to the problem by providing an audience for the bully.

Harassment is usually directed at a person because of their gender, race, creed or abilities. It can be subtle or explicit.

Subtle: (The most common)

They include:

- Offensive staring and leering.
- Unwanted comments about physical appearance and sexual preference.
- Racist or smutty comments or jokes.
- Questions about another’s sexual activity.
- Persistent comments about a person’s private life or family.
- Physical contact e.g. purposely brushing up against another’s body.
- Offensive name calling.

Explicit: (obvious)

They include:

- Grabbing, aggressive hitting, pinching and shoving etc.
- Unwelcome patting, touching, embracing.
- Repeated requests for dates, especially after refusal.
- Offensive gestures, jokes, comments, letters, phone calls or e-mail.
- Sexually and/or racially provocative remarks.
- Displays of sexually graphic material—pornography.
- Requests for sexual favours.

Extreme forms of sexual harassment will lead to criminal prosecution.

Bullying can involve such things as

- grabbing, aggressive staring, hitting, pinching, kicking, pushing and shoving.
- publicly excluding a person from your group
- taking or breaking a person’s property
- knocking a person’s books or belongings out of their hands or off their desk
- teasing a person because of their looks

Cyberbullying

Being involved in online spaces – either at home or at school - requires students to behave responsibly. This includes:

- the language you use and the things you say
• how you treat others
• respecting people's property (eg copyright)
• visiting appropriate places.

Behaving safely online means:

• protecting your own privacy and personal information (we used to call it 'stranger danger')
• selecting appropriate spaces to work and contribute
• protecting the privacy of others (this can be sharing personal information or images)
• being proactive in letting someone know if there is something is 'not quite right'. At home this would be a parent or carer, at school a teacher.

If you are being harassed or bullied you should:
• Tell the person you don't like what they are doing and you want them to stop.
• Discuss the matter with a student leader or a teacher/coordinator that you feel comfortable with.

Your concerns will be taken seriously. All complaints will be treated confidentially.

4. Shared expectations

Effective schools share high expectations for the whole-school community. Shared expectations are:

• jointly negotiated, owned and implemented by all members of the school community, including students
• clear and specific
• focused on positive and pro-social behaviours
• focused on prevention and early intervention
• supported by relevant procedures
• consistent, fair and reasonable
• linked to appropriate actions and consequences.

Schools – principals, teachers and school staff

Schools have a responsibility to provide an educational environment that ensures that all students are valued and cared for, feel they are part of the school, and can engage effectively in their learning and experience success.

The school’s values are based on the Australian Government’s nine values, for Australian schools, which are:

- Care and Compassion - Care for self and others
- Integrity - Act in accordance with principles of moral and ethical conduct, ensure consistency between words and deeds
- Doing Your Best - Seek to accomplish something worthy and admirable, try hard, pursue excellence
- Respect - Treat others with consideration and regard, respect another person’s point of view
- Fair Go - Pursue and protect the common good where all people are treated fairly for a just society
- Responsibility - Be accountable for one’s own actions, resolve differences in constructive, non-violent and peaceful ways, contribute to society and to civic life, take care of the environment
- Freedom - Enjoy all the rights and privileges of Australian citizenship free from unnecessary interference or control, and stand up for the rights of others
- Understanding, Tolerance and Inclusion - Be aware of others and their cultures, accept diversity within a democratic society, being included and including others
- Honesty and Trustworthiness - Be honest, sincere and seek the truth

School expectations include:

- inclusive teaching practices
- accessible educational provision for all students
- parent/carer partnerships and liaison
- community partnerships which engage families and the community in ways that support student achievement and success
- provision of appropriate student services
- development and provision of appropriate, relevant and challenging curriculum that gives students the opportunity to experience success in their learning.

Restorative Practices:
The school is committed to the use of restorative practices with students. Restorative Practices:

- are underpinned by student learning and facilitate an environment of safety, trust and connectedness (Bond et al. 2001, Fuller 1999)
- promote awareness of others, responsibility and empathy (Hopkins 2002)
- involve direct and voluntary participation of those affected by misconduct in its resolution (Braithwaite 2001b)
- promote relationship management rather than behaviour management (Cameron & Thorsborne 2001)
- separate the deed from the doer (Marshall et al. 2002)
- are systematic, not situational (Armstrong 2004)
- are concerned with establishing or re-establishing social equality in relationships; that is, relationships in which each person’s rights to equal dignity, concern and respect are satisfied (Morrison 2002).

Diversity in the school community:
The school aims to address diversity by:

- maintaining a highly skilled, motivated and energetic workforce who are better able to meet the needs of a diverse school community
- attracting highly skilled and diverse staff making the school a preferred employer
- increasing the range of knowledge, skills and experiences available in the workforce
• enhancing the capacity for effective decision-making due to the greater diversity of perspectives and inputs
• creating more effective work teams due to increased participation levels and an increased capacity to solve problems.

5. School actions and consequences

Rationale:

The school will support the effective engagement of students within the school by following the Burwood East Primary School Primary Prevention: Building belonging and promoting wellbeing and engagement protocol chart, Student Wellbeing Policy and Attendance Policy

Guidelines:

- The procedures for avoiding student behaviour issues are spelt out in Student Wellbeing policy and
- Classes will start the school year by focussing on relationships within the classroom and the school
- For student suspension and expulsion please refer to The Suspension and Expulsion guiding principles by DEECD
- Students with regular absence issues should have a Student Absence Learning Plan organised to support their learning. (See Appendix 6 – Effective Schools are Engaging Schools guidelines)

Equal emphasis should be placed on issuing positive consequences for meeting high expectations as there is no negative consequences.

Actions and consequences should have an educational role and aim to foster positive relationships and retain the dignity of the student. Actions and consequences that isolate a student from learning should be avoided where possible.

Student engagement, regular attendance and positive behaviours will be supported through relationship based whole-school and classroom practices, including:

• establishing predictable, fair and democratic classrooms and school environments
• ensuring student participation in the development of classroom and wholeschool expectations
• providing personalised learning programs where appropriate for individual students
• consistently acknowledging all students
• empowering students by creating multiple opportunities for them to take responsibility and be involved in decision-making
• providing physical environments conducive to positive behaviours and effective engagement in learning

Inappropriate behaviours, including irregular attendance, will be responded to through a staged response, including:

• understanding the student’s background and needs
• ensuring a clear understanding of expectations by both students and teachers
• providing consistent school and classroom environments
• scaffolding the student’s learning program.

Broader support strategies will include:

• involving and supporting the parents/carers,
• involving the student wellbeing coordinator, managed individual pathways or careers coordinators,
• tutoring/peer tutoring,
• mentoring and/or counselling,
• convening student support group meetings – the student support group is an important component of the staged response for students facing difficulty with engagement, attendance or behaviour,
• developing individualised flexible learning, behaviour or attendance plans,
• providing broader educational programs, for example experiential learning, work education, camps/outdoor education/creative arts,
• involving community support agencies.

Discipline Procedures – Suspension and Expulsion

When considering suspension or expulsion, schools are required to follow the procedures listed in section 4.3 of the DEECD guidelines published in Effective Schools are Engaging Schools Student Engagement Policy Guidelines. Appendices 12 to 18 of the guidelines provide flowcharts and proformas for use in suspension and expulsion procedures.

A student may only be excluded from school in situations where all other measures have been implemented without success or where an immediate suspension is the only appropriate course of action in response to the student’s behaviour.

Consequences which may be used prior to suspension include:

- Withdrawal of privileges
  - Withdrawal from class if a student’s behaviour significantly interferes with the rights of other students to learn or the capacity of a teacher to teach a class, that student may be temporarily isolated from regular classroom activities or, in more severe cases, required to leave the classroom for a specified period of time.

  Where appropriate, parents/carers should be informed of such withdrawals.

- Detention - teachers may require a student to finish school work that has not been completed in the regular classroom or to undertake additional or new work or duties at a reasonable time and place. No more than half the time allocated for any recess may be used for this work.

  Where students are required to undertake school work after school, the time should not exceed forty-five minutes.

  The principal should ensure that parents/carers are informed at least the day before the detention. Where family circumstances are such that the completion of after-school work would create undue hardship (for example, where students regularly supervise younger siblings in the absence of parents/carers), the school may choose to negotiate alternative disciplinary measures with parents/carers.

- Convening of a support group (See Effective Schools are Engaging Schools - Student Engagement Policy Guidelines for process required).
